WKI is a registered mark of the Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft

complies with the requirements of the "Ordinance on bans and restrictive measures for the marketing of hazardous substances, preparations and products according to the Chemicals Act" (Chemikalien-Verbotsverordnung - ChemVerbotsV), Appendix 1 to § 3, prohibition of placing on the market, "Entry 1: Formaldehyde", Clause 2 (1) in regard to the formaldehyde limit values valid since January 1, 2020 in Germany.

This certificate confirms the performance of the initial inspection of the factory and the factory production control, including the production of a product-related manufacturer correlation according to the certification program of the Fraunhofer WKI E[D²⁰²⁰]. The product testing and evaluation of the test results were carried out in accordance with the analytical procedure published by the Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety (BMU) in the Federal Register on 26 November 2018. This E[D²⁰²⁰] certificate, first issued on 18 December 2019, is valid as long as the annual supervision and the quarterly product tests are carried out by the Fraunhofer-Institute for Wood Research WKI and the stipulations of the above-mentioned ordinance itself are not significantly changed.
